SOME BIG CROWDS ARE CONSULTING STOMACH ORACLE

Cooper Says General Sale Has Made No Difference in Number Of Callers.

Although his much discussed medicine is now on sale at all druggists in New York, there has apparently been no let-up in the crowds that are calling at the store where Cooper is meeting the public.

In speaking Monday of his extraordinary success in New York, Cooper said: "The majority of the people who are now calling to get my medicine have been sent here by friends. There is nothing the matter with nine out of ten people who are in poor health but stomach trouble, brought about by over-feeding and little outdoor exercise. I can prove this in a few weeks to anyone who tries Cooper's New Discovery. As soon as I have proved it and they no longer feel tired and dull and nervous, they tell their friends about it, and that beats anything I could say on the subject."

"I thought when I put my medicine on sale generally in New York there would be a let-up at this store, but apparently there are just as many calling to talk with me as ever. People have not yet realized that they can get the medicine wherever they choose. I shall continue to meet the public at this store during the rest of my stay in New York."

Among statements made for publication on Monday by New Yorkers who are strongly in favor of Cooper's theory and medicine was the following by Mrs. Charles Tremach, of 27 Denness street, who said: "No one who has had such an experience as my husband and myself with this New Discovery medicine could help talking about it. I am well again after fifteen years' constant sickness, and my husband is also in perfect health after being treated by six different physicians this winter."

"My trouble has been indigestion and rheumatism. I was also generally run down and suffered greatly from nervousness. I also had palpitation of the heart, caused by gas that would form in my stomach as soon as I ate anything. It is impossible to describe how miserable I have been all these years, or how hard I have tried to get well. When I got this medicine my health was completely shattered. My husband had violent stomach trouble for a year. It got so bad this past winter that he had swelling of the joints and limps. When I first brought the medicine home he said that I was foolish, as it would do me no good. After I had taken it for two weeks I was so much better that he got some and started taking it. He got better faster than I. In two weeks he was eating big meals and the swelling had all gone away. It took four weeks before the rheumatism and nervousness left me, although I ate and felt better at the end of the first week. I am now perfectly well; I eat heartily and have no gas in my stomach. I have gained a great deal of flesh and feel strong and energetic. My husband is like another man. He is no longer troubled with indigestion and sleeps as he has not been able to for a long time. He says he feels ten years younger. We think this medicine is marvelous."

Cooper's New Discovery is now on sale at leading druggists everywhere. We will send free, upon request, a treatise by Mr. Cooper, describing the true cause of most ill health. The Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio.

COMMITTEE HAS HARD JOB ON ITS HANDS

SENATE SPECIAL COMMITTEE CANNOT GET INFORMATION DESIRED REGARDING MERGER OF UNITED STEEL CORPORATION AND TENNESSEE COAL AND IRON COMPANY.

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 4.—The special committee of the senate committee on judiciary which is investigating the Tennessee Coal and Iron absorption by the United States Steel Corporation expects to meet difficulties in preparing a reply to the senate resolution providing the inquiry. Although a number of bankers who were supposed to know all about the details of the purchase of the Tennessee Company by the Steel Corporation have explained to the committee their participation in the transaction, nothing has been brought out which disputes President Roosevelt's contention that there was nothing proposed with which he found it incumbent upon him to interfere.

The resolution calls upon the committee to report what was the president's authority for permitting the merger. Nothing has been found by the committee which seems to warrant the president in giving consent to the absorption nor anything which seems to demand that he should have forbidden the merger. Some of the members of the committee then discussing the case informally today suggested that it would have been for the president to advise Judge Gary and Mr. Frick to consult their lawyers instead of submitting the proposition to him.

Financiers "Squeezed." In summing up the evidence presented a number of lawyers in the senate have said that it appears to them that the party of sixteen financiers who obtained control of the majority of the stock were systematically "squeezed" during the panic days of October, 1907.

Senator Culberson has sought to show that the stocks were especially "pounded" in the "street" by people interested in the so-called Morgan banks.

It is possible no report whatever will be made to the senate in response to the Culberson resolution. So many legal questions are involved that it is predicted a long discussion will result from any attempt to determine whether the president had proceeded in wrongful manner. His communication to the senate suggests that the only action taken by him was to say that he saw no reason why he should interfere to prevent the merger. This is construed variously by members of the committee, some of the Democrats going so far as to say it amounted to an instruction to the attorney general not to prosecute the merger even if it was found to be contrary to the provisions of the Sherman law.

Man Who Suicided in Cleveland Lodging House Leaves Peculiar Document.

By Associated Press. Cleveland, Feb. 4.—The World, debtor in account with Edward J. McEllan, creditor.

"To, one life ruined; to carbolic acid, ten cents; to hell one eternity. This account may be squared by giving me a decent grave."

This is all that remains to tell of the identity of a man who died by his own hand in a lodging house here last night.

The man was not of the lodging house type. His thin face was that of a man of refinement.

RACING GIVEN A BLOW.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 4.—Racing in the state of California received a vital blow when the senate today passed the Walker-Otis anti-racing bill, which prohibits pool selling, book-making, or gambling on horse races. It has already passed the assembly. The governor will sign the measure.

WHITWORTH EXCUSED FROM COOPER JURY

JUROR DID NOT DENY SPECIFICALLY ENOUGH CHARGE THAT HE HAD SAID PATTERSON WAS MIXED UP IN THE MURDER OF FORMER SENATOR CARMACK.

By Associated Press.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 4.—When court opened this morning for the purpose of drawing a new venire for the trial of Col. Duncan B. Cooper, Robin J. Cooper and John D. Sharp for the murder of former Senator E. W. Carmack, Judge Hart said:

"There have been intimations in the press that the jury list has been tampered with. I wish to say that the jury box from which the names are drawn is in the custody of Circuit Clerk Lewis Hitt. The names in it were placed there two years ago. It remains sealed and is controlled by Hitt, who was Carmack's campaign manager. I make this statement in justice to every one concerned."

Judge Hart seemed to feel very deeply the insinuation that there was an effort made to get men on the panel friendly to the defendants. Very few, if any, in the room had heard of such a charge, which was sent to the judge in the form of a clipping from an out-of-town paper. The court then drew the new venire and sent for Juror Whitworth. The latter was asked to explain his remark that he was against Governor Patterson.

"I said I was against him because of his abuse of the pardoning power and in turning criminals loose," Judge Anderson, of the defense, cross examined the juror.

Whitworth declared he would much prefer to escape service, but denied any bias.

Reviewed the Charge.

The court then briefly reviewed the charge. He held that the claim that the juror had said that the defendants should be hanged was controverted. On the second charge, that he had said that Governor Patterson had a hand in the killing, the judge held that the juror did not deny it specifically enough.

"Therefore," the court concluded, "I deem it best to excuse Mr. Whitworth from the jury."

The state objected strenuously and declared that the court's action would disgrace and discredit Whitworth. Judge Hart hastened to say that there was no ground for such a statement. The state continued to fight the decision and in lengthy speeches sought to change it without avail.

Court then adjourned until Monday at 9 a. m., when the efforts to secure two more jurors will be resumed.

LEGISLATURE OF S. CAROLINA IS WITH TILLMAN

ADOPTS STRONG RESOLUTION IN OPPOSITION TO THE CONFIRMATION OF W. D. CRUM AS COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS AT PORT OF CHARLESTON.

By Associated Press.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 4.—That the legislature of South Carolina, in keeping with the expressed sentiment of the entire white population of the state, is in full sympathy and accord with the efforts made by Senator Tillman to defeat the confirmation of W. D. Crum, colored, to be collector of the port of Charleston, is shown by a resolution unanimously adopted by the house of representatives last night and which will be presented to the senate today.

The resolutions says in part: "On the all wise plans of the creator of the universe, the white or Caucasian race has been made the superior of all others and to it is committed the problems and the destiny of this great republic."

"It is the black man's or negro's real best interest that no one of his race shall be raised high in authority over the white people in any community."

"W. D. Crum is a negro and President Roosevelt has again appointed him collector of the port of Charleston, the metropolis of our great state, and, with studied intention, is endeavoring to humiliate and wound the honorable pride of the best people of that city."

"We consider it an unfortunate appointment, one tending to induce the hope of social equality in the hearts and minds of the negroes of our country and a useless and needless affront to the white citizenship of Charleston."

COUNTY COURT WAS SUCCESSFUL

Washington County's Treasury Swelled as Result of Convictions.

Vernon, Feb. 4.—The last term of county court was a successful one from the standpoint of convictions. Twenty-three defendants were convicted, and of this number enough were sentenced to the "gallows" to swell the treasury something over $1,100. Besides this amount for convict hire bonds were given for over $1,000 for fines assessed, which will be paid in the next ninety days.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday and the day before and transacted considerable business. Several contracts were made for various county works. C. M. Williams was the successful bidder on the waterworks. He is to run the same for the balance of the year.

T. G. Lawrence, the genial manager of the county poor farm, states that he is going to grow a bumper crop of corn and peanuts on the farm this year. As Mr. Lawrence is a successful farmer it goes without saying that the above is no empty or idle boast.

The long bridge across Holmes creek is nearly complete, and will soon be ready for travel. Next spring Vernon will not, we are sure, be water bound for days at the time, and cut off from the outside world as in the past on account of the high water. The bridge when it is completed will afford passage over the creek at any time.

G. G. Allen, our capable and efficient sheriff, was in town for a few days the first of the week on business connected with his office. Mr. Allen is proving to be a terror to the evil doers and is keeping the "hotel de Carter" pretty full of boarders.

It seems that the newspaper which was to have started publication here on the first of January last, has gone dead. We have been unable to hear anything lately from the young man who was to put in the plant here. It is the fact that he has given up the idea it is to be regretted, as a paper is certainly needed here. We venture the assertion that Washington county is the only county in the state that has no newspaper at its county seat. The field is a good one, and it is sincerely hoped by all of the citizens here that some enterprising printer will so see it soon.

A. Q. Jones, of Miller's Ferry, Fla., who recently moved here from the last named place, is apparently greatly benefited by the change. He says that this is the town to live in.

An effort is on foot to secure the services of Prof. L. L. Pratt for the purpose of running a private school at the end of the present public term. Mr. Pratt has given universal satisfaction, and it is generally conceded that he is one of the best teachers of the county. No mistake will be made by any of the patrons of the present school in sending to Mr. Pratt's private school in case he decides to conduct one.

MUNIN MAY BE THE VESSEL TO GO DOWN

Norwegian Steamer From New York For Darien, Ga., Has Not Been Heard From Since She Left.

By Associated Press.

New York, Feb. 4.—Funch, Edye & Co., New York agents of the Norwegian steamer Munin, which sailed from New York on January 6 for Darien, Ga., said today that they had no word from the Munin since she left port. She carried no passengers but a crew of 25 men. When asked if there was a probability that the Munin was the steamer which went down off Diamond Shoals lightship last week, they said it was possible.

DAMAGE NOT GREAT AT TAMPA

Fruit Crop Not Hurt, But Tender Vegetation Suffered Some.

While somewhat late in the year in making his appearance Jack Frost arrived in Tampa in full force yesterday morning and followed it up with a more severe visitation this morning, says the Tampa Tribune.

The keen and biting wind which prevailed all of Saturday and throughout that night drove the thermometer down to 30 in Tampa and yesterday overcoats and wraps were much in evidence on the streets as those who were compelled to be out hurried to complete their business and return to the warmth of a fireside.

During the afternoon, when the sun had gained some strength, knots of men gathered on sunny corners where the buildings made some protection from the wind and discussed the prospects of damage to the orange groves and vegetables, but as a rule they did not linger long.

Last night the thermometer dropped to 27, freezing conditions prevailing from midnight until 5 o'clock this morning.

Early risers found the water in pumps and any vessels which had been left in the yards coated with a covering of ice about an eighth of an inch thick, and in some places more, and all tender plant life which was not protected and had survived Saturday night's visitation was killed or badly hurt.

Reports from orange growers in the vicinity indicate, however, that no harm has been done to either the fruit on the trees or the trees themselves, but it is generally conceded that the truck growers will have suffered a setback by the destruction of all tender vegetables which were not well protected.

The weather in Jacksonville this morning was warmer than was the case Saturday night, the thermometer on the latter date being as low as 22 while this morning's report gives it as 24.

A walk through the residence portion of the city last night reminded one of either a heavy fall of snow or a ghost parade, the majority of the shrubbery in the different yards being wrapped in sheets and other material as a protection against the weather. Those who took these precautions will, in the next few days after the wintry blast has subsided, have their places in as attractive a condition as before the cold wave.

Weather to Moderate.

According to Local Weather Observer Scarr the indications are that there will be a considerable moderation of the weather by tomorrow morning, though he anticipates that the thermometer will again register in the vicinity of the freezing point.

There is some slight moderation of the conditions in Alabama and Georgia from which it is argued that the worst of the snap is over and that within the next couple of days Tampa will again be rejoicing in her customary genial climate.

Ice on Big Standpipes.

A feature of the cold snap was the sight presented at the tank of the Tampa Water Works company on Tampa Heights.

The water which had overflowed from the tank had run down the wire netting with which the lower part of the structure is surrounded, and on which it had formed a solid sheet of ice, presenting a beautiful and fortunately novel spectacle in this section.

A quantity of the water had also been blown by the wind onto the oak tree which stands near the tank, which had also been converted into ice, the tree being almost borne down by the weight of its novel coat of mail.

The surplus water had flowed in a stream down the hill almost to the county jail and until a late hour of the morning was solidly frozen in the gutters of Jefferson street.

WILL PASS BANK BILL.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—The postal savings bank league, which is advocating the passage of the postal savings bank bill now before congress, has received assurances from members of the house and senate which lead to the conviction that the bill, as amended, would be passed, if it was reported favorably by the committee or a vote taken.
